RAISE A GLASS TO WOMEN IN WINE

The Editor's Collection Rosé, from SIMI Winemaker Lisa Evich

For Lisa, being in the vineyards and translating a place into a bottle is a calling.

SIMI is proud to partner with Reese's Book Club
to celebrate the heroines of today's stories.

Sokol Blosser

ONWARD TO THE NEXT FIFTY YEARS

"My goal is to build on the amazing foundation my mother - founder Susan Sokol Blosser - created. Making great wines, conducting our business with integrity, respecting our employees and the earth, not being afraid of innovation and remaining family owned and operated - these are the goals and values that inspire and guide us."

HOLIDAILY
BREWING CO.
GOLDEN, COLORADO

AMERICA'S DEDICATED GLUTEN-FREE BREWERY

When Founder of Holidaily Brewing Company, Karen Hertz, was diagnosed with melanoma and thyroid cancer in her early 30's, opening her own business was the last thing on her mind. At the time, she worked in the beer industry and was raising one-year-old twin girls. Post surgeries and treatments, Karen's doctors gave her the recommendation to remove gluten from her diet. She struggled to find a great-tasting, 100% gluten-free beer and was driven to solve this problem. After years of research and testing, Holidaily Brewing Company was born in 2016. Since then, Holidaily has grown over 850%, and their production brewery is the largest dedicated gluten-free brewery in the U.S. Exponential growth and national awards for the quality of their brews have allowed for rapid expansion across the country. "Our brewery's motto is to "Make Every Day a Holiday," says Karen. "Our beer is made with 100% gluten-free ingredients so even the most gluten-sensitive consumers can enjoy a delicious craft beer and the experiences that come with it."
